

SOCIETY

A Happily Anticipated Party.

Many times the women of the Army and Navy have felt the need of a society where they could be of financial as well as sympathetic aid to the women whose husbands have given but little time for their country. The women of the Army and Navy in Hawaii are planning and arranging a large dance that will be the nucleus for a worthy kindness. The officers' wives are not to be the only ones benefited by this society, for the enlisted man's wife and children will have the kindly thought and financial aid of these worthy women. The Post Hall will be made to look as much like a ball room as possible and here the festivities will take place. This worthy thought will materialize on the twenty-ninth of June and it is earnestly hoped that the hall will be filled to capacity. A most cordial invitation is extended to townsfolk as well as Army and Navy. Either in a motor or train it is a pleasant ride and a good time is anticipated.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Kingsbury's Dinner.

Mrs. Ridenbough and her daughter, Miss Florence Ridenbough, who were through passengers on Monday's Mongolia, were the dinner guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Kingsbury at their bungalow home on Lunalia Street. The table was attractively decorated with pink carnations and maidenhair fern. Lieutenant and Mrs. Kingsbury's guests were Mrs. Ridenbough, Miss Ridenbough, Miss Priscilla Elliott and Mr. Blaine.

Sewing Club Meets.

Miss Nina Clegg was hostess for the Sewing Club on Wednesday of this week. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and music. Mrs. Charles Hall and Mrs. Robertson singing in a most delightful manner. Miss Clegg's guests were Mrs. Alexander G. M. Robertson, Mrs. Carlos Lott, Miss Ethel Whiting, Miss Opra Starrett, Miss Beryl Jones, Miss Sibyl Winter, Mrs. Charles Hall and Mrs. Bennett.

Mrs. Curry's Card Party.

The neighborhood Bridge Club met with Mrs. Curry as its hostess on Wednesday of this week. The house was prettily decorated in pink tulle and lavender asters. Mrs. McCoy was given the first prize, a pair of silver hoes. Mrs. Curry's guests were Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Clegg, Miss Elmhorn, Mrs. Carl Rhodes, Mrs. J. O. Young, Mrs. Randolph Moore, Mrs. McCoy and Mrs. Arthur Keller.

The Evening Bridge Club.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Curry engaged the Thursday Evening Bridge Club at their home on Makiki Street. The house was attractively decorated in white star vine and flaming red carnations. Baskets of flowers were artistically arranged about the rooms. Miss Thomas was given the ladies' prize, a Canton fruit dish, and Mr. Clinton Owen won the gentlemen's prize, a silver trunk tag. Mr. and Mrs. Curry's guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Young, Dr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hann, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Moore, Mr. Woodford, Miss Woodford, Mr. Will Thomas, Miss Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel DeFreest, Professor and Mrs. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Owen.

Tuesday Evening Bridge.

The Tuesday Evening Service Bridge Club members were the guests of Miss Edith Cowles at her home on Wilder avenue. Miss Lydia McStocker was given a book of fiction for top scoring and Lieutenant Kirby Smith was given the gentlemen's gift, a paper knife. Miss Cowles' guests were Lieutenant and Mrs. Homer Preston of Port Shafter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Sheedy, Lieutenant and Mrs. Kirby Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marlin Hepburn, Miss Julie McStocker, Miss Lydia McStocker and Lieutenant Salm.

Dorothy Curry's Luncheon Party.

To celebrate little Dorothy's seventh birthday, Mrs. George S. Curry invited ten little friends to a pink and white lunch party. The birthday cake with its dainty wreath of pink rambler roses and baby maidenhair was very effective indeed. Suspended from daintily filled baskets of white and pink candy tuft streamers of pink tulle were brought to mark each little guest's place. A dainty basket filled with pink and white candy was most attractive. Little Dorothy's guests were Margaret Phillips, Peggy Ault, Grace DeFreest, Eleanor Wason, Anne Gayler, Marguerite Reynolds, Charlotte Spohler, Ruth Curry, Albert Hoogs and Jim Hoogs.

The Hilo Piano Club.

Another successful and pleasurable party was given by the Piano Club of Hilo. These affairs are always a pleasure and the efforts of the members were greatly appreciated by the guests. The program which was given was as follows:

Mrs. Carl Carlsmith's Tea.

Mrs. Carl S. Carlsmith was hostess to twenty friends at her home in Hilo on Thursday of this week. A pleasant and delightful afternoon was provided by Mrs. Carlsmith.

Miss Irene Dickson's Poi Luncheon.

Miss Irene Dickson was hostess at a small but delightfully informal poi luncheon on Wednesday of this week. The decorations were in yellow and were most effective. Miss Dickson's guests were Princess Kawananakoa, Mrs. Fred. Damon, Mrs. William Williamson and Mrs. James D. Dougherty.

Luncheon Club meets.

Mrs. Harry Marlin, Hepburn was hostess for the Thursday Luncheon Club at her pretty Manoa home. The table was artistically decorated with a basket of pink roses and blue tulle. Mrs. Hepburn's guests were Miss Lydia McStocker, Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, Miss Priscilla Kingsbury, Miss Julie McStocker, Miss Edith Cowles and Mrs. Kirby Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wood left on the Wilhelmnia for a short trip to Hilo, returning to Honolulu tomorrow morning. Next week Mr. Wood leaves for New York to be gone three months. Mr. and Mrs. Wood's sons, who are at college, will be here for the summer.

Eight o'clock

Mr. Paul Isenberg arrived in the Wilhelmnia. Mrs. Isenberg remains on the mainland visiting friends and relatives.

Members of the younger set are planning many gaudies and festivities for the boys and girls who are home on vacations.

Miss Rosamond Swanzy was warmly welcomed home by a large number of friends on Wednesday morning, when she came in on the Manchuria. Miss Swanzy will return to Briar Cliff.

Miss Pauline Schaefer, who has been a student at Miss Gamble's private school at Santa Cruz, was a home-coming passenger on the Manchuria to spend the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer.

Miss Dora and Miss Juliette Atwater are in Honolulu for the summer.

Carter Galt was a home-coming passenger on Wednesday from Simsbury, Conn., where he is attending a preparatory school.

Miss Harriet Hitchcock left for Hawaii Wednesday morning.

Miss Bertha Ben Taylor, who has been the house-guest of Mrs. E. R. Stackable, left for her home at Naelehu on Wednesday.

Mrs. Paul Schmidt and baby, Pauline, left for a six weeks' visit to Maui on the Kilauea.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Arnold with their little daughter, Luella, left for a three months' trip in the Sonoma.

Mrs. Seiden E. Kingsbury left in the Lurline for an extensive trip throughout the East. Mr. Jones of Winnipeg, a brother of Mrs. Kingsbury, will meet his sister on the mainland.

Captain and Mrs. Seales with their two children have left for a three months' trip to the mainland.

Mrs. Richard Davis and her small son, Kirkland, and Mrs. Davis' father, Mr. James Kirkland, left for San Francisco in the Sonoma.

Fred. Schaefer, who has been away at school for the past year, came home in the Manchuria.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McEldowney (nee Robertson) left in the Sonoma for a honeymoon trip to be spent in the southern part of California.

Honolulu is pleased to say "Welcome home" to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hutchins and Doris Hutchins, who have been away from Honolulu for the past four years, living in San Francisco.

The Hind family is booked to leave for their Kona home next Tuesday.

Among the boys on their way to their island homes may be mentioned Lawrence and Ernest Gay and Leighton and John Hind.

Mrs. Fred. Knight left for Mana on the Mauna Kea.

Mrs. Harold Castle was a home-coming passenger on the Manchuria. Mrs. Castle was accompanied by her brother, Mr. E. W. Hedemann.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Dole and children arrived home on the Manchuria after a pleasant trip to San Francisco.

Mr. Francis Eames and his sister, Miss Elizabeth Eames, were home-coming people on the Manchuria. At the time of the Titanic disaster great anxiety was felt among their friends, as it was feared they were on board the doomed ship.

Mrs. A. Hocking, after a pleasant three months' visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Munther, was a home-coming Manchuria passenger.

Miss Sepha Pischel, who is to be the house-guest of Miss Pauline Schaefer, arrived on the Manchuria.

Mrs. Eugene Campbell, after a delightful two months in Chicago at her father's home, arrived on the Manchuria.

Dr. Charles Bryant Cooper returned on the Wilhelmnia, as did Mrs. J. S. McGrew, who has been so ill for the past two months.

Mrs. Elizabeth Church is at Lake Tahoe enjoying the beauties and pleasures of this delightful resort.

Mrs. William Hiserman will come to Honolulu from Hawaii to spend a few weeks of the summer with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ross of Hakalau were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Patten in their cottage in the Hilo Hotel grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Castle are guests of the Fairmont on their way to Europe. Mr. Castle thinks a hot day in San Francisco is hotter than our hottest day here—at least that has been his recent experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Scott will soon move from Wainaku to Umiula. Mr. Scott has been given the position left vacant by Mr. Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Emory will leave for a three months' trip by the Zealandia, sailing Tuesday afternoon. They will go to New Hampshire, for their son, Closson, is a student at Exeter.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Humbert arrived in the transport Logan and for this week are at the Courtland but will move out to Fort Ruger on Monday.

Mrs. Baker and two sons arrived in the transport and are at the quarters of Dr. Baker of Fort Ruger.

Dr. Laura B. Hurd of San Francisco and her mother, Mrs. W. E. Zarby, and Miss de Haven left on the Mongolia for their home on the mainland. Like all tourists these women were charmed and plan to come again when their stay can be longer.

Mr. John M. Dowsett left for a flying trip to the Coast this week.

Mrs. Edward M. Watson is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley of Visalia, Cal. She hopes to be home in Honolulu during the latter part of July. Miss Blair and Miss Lucas are in their home on Thurston and Green streets until the Watsons return. Mrs. Watson has had a winter in Washington and visited the Southern States and has had a round of pleasure and gaiety since leaving here. Nevertheless she will be happy to be home again.

Princess Kawananakoa is deluged with cards bidding her to be crowned, but she is resting and going out very little as yet.

Madame Shingle will arrive here on the twenty-second of this month and either buy or build a bungalow, as she plans to spend part of each year in Honolulu.

Mrs. Eugene Campbell has just returned from Chicago, where she has been at her father's home on a visit. While in Chicago Mrs. Campbell was the recipient of many favors and kindnesses from a large circle of friends. In California she was the honored guest of Madame Shingle and was greatly entertained. Miss Campbell's father is quite ill and it was for this reason that the trip East was taken.

Mr. and Mrs. George Davies have Mr. Campbell of London as their house guest.

Miss Erma Phleger, of Sacramento, California, will arrive in Honolulu on the Makura next week to be the house guest of Miss Florence Hoffmann.

The following invitation has been received:
The Senior Class of nineteen twelve of Oahu College

A Makiki Home for Sale for $3750

HONOLULU, The Capital City and the Metropolis of Hawaii, is sure to become a large city in a short time, and you will realize handsomely on your investment, if you do not wish to retain the Makiki property as a home.

Land values—the most limited thing in the Islands—are undervalued, we are told time and time again, but they will not continue to be so. Shrewd, far-seeing investors from the States are more and more putting their money in Honolulu real estate, because they see that the trend of all local property values is upward.

Be prepared to realize on investments, or assure yourself of a Honolulu home when the Panama Canal is completed, and after the great San Francisco Pan-Pacific Exposition.

Your Opportunity Is Now. Why Not Act At Once?

There are many excellent home sites in Makiki, near churches and schools, with sidewalks and curbs, and only ten minutes from the business district. Come in and we will take you out and let you choose your own lot. It only takes a small initial payment to make it yours.

We will finance the erection of a bungalow according to the plans you select—if you wish.
